

All models include country fixed effects, with standard errors clustered by country.